D-Day at TCH

The TCH Diversity Team held the 2nd Annual Diversity Day on the TCH campus on February 23. Students received a colored armband in homeroom that could not be removed. Signs discriminating certain colored armbands were displayed all around school. For example, only certain colors could use the water fountain and certain entrances to buildings. In class, teachers gave certain perks to one color and made it harder on students with the other colors. At lunchtime, students were only allowed to sit at tables reserved for their color. Candy was given out to only certain students.

Mrs. Dianne Mouton-Allen, a TCH alumnae and the Director of the Lafayette Chapter of the National Coalition & Building Institute, spoke to our students about Diversity Day before and after the event. Mrs. Mouton-Allen wanted the students to understand that diversity is not just about skin color, but about prejudice of any kind. Students get picked on in high school because of the way they look, where they are from, the interests they have, being really smart, their physical abilities, their choice of friends, or simply for being shy. The Diversity Team attempts to teach students to accept others for who they are and to reserve judgments. The Diversity Team strives for all Teurlings students to respect one another!

You may be wondering, "Why are we doing all of this when we haven't experienced any serious violence on our campus?" Well, the answer is simple: we don't want to wait until something happens. Even though we haven't had any major incidents of violence, many acts of hateful words or teasing happen everyday. Unless your child is involved, you don't realize how hurtful or damaging this can be to someone. Most of the teasing and harassment takes place in the ninth and tenth grades, because most of the students are not fully mature and don't realize how harassment can seriously affect another person. There are still some incidents in the upper grades, but very few.

The Diversity Team had worked with our freshman class the first day of school. They conducted another workshop in religion class in October and will soon meet with them again. I am proud to say that I have had hardly any incidents of teasing or harassment by freshman brought to my office so far this year. It is definitely fewer incidents than any other freshman class since I have been at TCH. In my opinion, the time and energy that the Diversity Team has dedicated to our students this year, is paying off!

Thanks to all the members, especially the leaders, Jared Vidrine (12) and Tizzy Walker (12) and their sponsor, Mrs. Candy Spillers for a great day!

ACADEMICS

Marty Heintz - Assistant Principal

K-12 Planet

You would not believe the calls Anna Proctor and I are getting from parents who are using K-12 Planet to track their student's progress; parents are surprisingly delighted with its effectiveness and how easy it is to use. Approximately half of our parents have requested log-in information. For those of you who have not done so, I suggest you do. You are able to see every grade in each subject in addition to a quarterly average. This enables you to pinpoint which assignments your child did not complete or did not do well on. Talk about a great tool for some reinforcement at home! A number of parents noted immediately that some assignments were not being completed and handled the problem early enough in the quarter so that the student's official grade will not suffer. As a parent, I would have been thrilled to have a tool like this when my own children were in school. Of course, my kids may not have appreciated this resource. In fact, this is the comment I get most often from students – they are not crazy about the website, since their parents can see if they are not doing their work.

If you have not already requested your login from Mrs. Proctor, please do so and utilize the system. It's so much better to get a up-to-date progress report every week than to wait until the quarter is halfway over to see that that there may be a problem.

Schoolnotes.com

Several of our teachers have now set up pages at schoolnotes.com, where students can log in and get copies of assignments and even class notes. To log in, go to www.schoolnotes.com and type in the zip code of Teurlings (70501) to find the teachers' pages. At this point Mrs. Brame and Mrs. Martin have pages that contain valuable class material for both parents and students. However, please note that the teachers do not require the class notes posted on the website to be downloaded and copied by the student.

Students are still expected to take notes in class, even if the notes are on the website. This website is merely provided as a convenience and a checking tool for assignments and work done in class. Although all necessary materials are provided in class, these notes repeat material covered in class and are especially helpful for students who are absent or who have trouble taking notes and want to check their work. In other words, students do NOT have to download notes, because the notes will be given in class. This site simply provides a back up.

TCH Aca Pep 2005

with good grades...

If you are new to TCH, you've probably never seen anything quite like our Academic Pep Rally. Students who achieved a 3.0 or better for the first semester, with no "C" for any semester grade, will be honored in a two hour extravaganza of entertainment, awards, and prizes.

We invite you to join us on Wednesday, March 16, at noon in the RebelDome as we honor our students for their academic achievements!

1. Rebel Revivals - Retreat Ministry has been very busy planning rebel revivals recently. In January, Samantha Debevec and Jeremy August planned an evening full of praise and worship, skits, and fellowship! On February 16th, many students gathered for a Rebel Revival planned by Lacey Broussard and Colin Duhon. The theme was "Come and fall in love with God!" Please join us for our next Rebel Revival on March 9th at 7:00pm in the Rebel Dome.

2. TCH "Right to Life March" - On January 24, 2005, the 3rd annual "Right to Life March" was held to stand up for those who have no voice. The walk began at Teurlings Catholic High School and ended at the Immaculata Center. The senior class lead the walk carrying 32 crosses representing each year since the court case of Roe v. Wade which legalized abortion in the United States. The schools following the student body of TCH included: St. Genevieve Middle School, Cathedral Carmel, St. Pius Elementary, Hanson Memorial High School, Sacred Heart of Ville Platte, Carencro Catholic, St. Thomas More High School, Opelousas Catholic High School, Immaculate Heart of Mary, St. Edwards, and the Academy of the Sacred Heart. Each school brought a wooden cross to represent their school. Bishop Michael Jarrell spoke to the youth, along with Trista Littell, a representative from the Diocese, and Valerie Sampia who shared her personal story about living with the grief that follows after having an abortion. Thanks to all who joined us for the life-giving event. Turn to page 8 for pictures!

3. National "Right to Life March" - 51 students, faculty, and parents from our school attended the National "Right to Life March" in Washington, DC, on January 21-25. While the rest of Teurlings was marching for life in Lafayette, Louisiana, this group was marching at the same time in Washington, DC. On the trip they also visited monuments, museums, and churches. They saw the Holocaust Museum, Arlington Cemetery, the Smithsonians, Union Station, the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception, and the World War II, Lincoln, Vietnam, and Korean Memorials. Memories were made and fun was had by all.

Seniors and Parents

Graduation will be here before we know it! So that you may begin preparations for the “Big Events,” please note the requirements to be met by each student in order to graduate and the dates and times for senior and graduation events.

Graduation Requirements

- “ All debts to Teurlings Catholic High School, including tuition and fees-for lost textbooks, library fines, and balances with the cafeteria, must be cleared before a senior will be allowed to take his/her exams, which begin on May 10, 2005.
- “ In order to receive a Teurlings Catholic High School diploma, a student must pass a total of 26 units including all state-required courses. A student who fails to qualify under this standard may participate in graduation exercises if, and only if, he/she passed a total of 23 units, including all state-required courses and Theology IV. Such students will not receive a TCH diploma, but a diocesan diploma.
- “ Any senior student who receives a grade of “Incomplete” in Theology IV or fails Theology IV for the year shall not be granted a TCH diploma and shall not participate in graduation ceremonies.
- “ Please refer to the TCH Student-Parent Handbook for clarification of the aforementioned requirements and policies.
- “ Any student who is determined by the sponsors, faculty, or administration to be under the influence of alcohol or any otherwise inappropriate substance during any school-sponsored event will not be allowed to graduate on stage or to participate in any other graduation event. Such students will also be subject to disciplinary action.

Dates and Times of Events

- “ The Senior Liturgy will be celebrated on Thursday, April 28, 2005, at 8:48 a.m. in the school gymnasium. Family and friends are invited to join the seniors for this celebration. Seniors wear Sunday dress attire.
- “ Senior Exams are scheduled for May 10 - May 13, 2005. The schedule for exams will be announced for a later date.
- “ Senior Convocation will be held at 3:00 p.m. on Sunday, May 22, 2005, at St. Elizabeth Seton Catholic Church. Attendance at this function is mandatory for all senior students. Seniors should arrive at 2:00 p.m. sharp. If a senior is not present at this function, he/she will not graduate on stage with the Class of 2005. Dress Code: Girls - Graduation gown, white stole, black sheer stockings, black closed-toe shoes (no slides, must have a back). Boys - Graduation gown, white stole, dark slacks and dark socks (blue, brown, charcoal, or black), dark dress shoes, a white shirt and an appropriate tie. (No graduation cap for this event, stoles will be given out prior to the ceremony.)
- “ Graduation and Baccalaureate Mass Practice will be held at 9:00 a.m. on Monday, May 23, 2005, at the Heymann Performing Arts Center. Attendance is mandatory for all graduates. Students should be aware that practice will last until rehearsals meet expectations for the final ceremony and, therefore, should not plan any other activities before 12:00 noon. Report cards will be distributed at this time.
- “ Baccalaureate Mass will be held at 5:30 p.m. on Monday, May 23, 2005, at the Frem Boustany Convention Center, which is adjacent to the Heymann Center. Graduating seniors are to report at 4:45 p.m. on that day. Attendance at this Mass is mandatory for all graduates. In order to graduate on stage, the student must attend the Baccalaureate Mass. Due the limited seating capacity of the Convention Center, seating for the Baccalaureate mass will be limited to immediate family of the graduates. Dress Code: Girls - Graduation cap and gown, white stole, black sheer stockings, black closed-toe shoes (no slides, must have a back). Boys - Graduation cap and gown, white stole, dark slacks and dark socks (blue, brown, charcoal, or black), dark dress shoes, a white shirt and an appropriate tie.
- “ The 2005 Graduation Ceremony will be held at the Heymann Performing Arts Center immediately following the Baccalaureate Mass. Guests not present for the Mass will not be admitted into the auditorium until after mass participants have entered, approximately 7:00 p.m. Attendance is, of course, mandatory. Dress Code: Same as Baccalaureate Mass. Girls will be given a class flower to hold and boys will wear a boutonniere. Beta Club, National Honor Society and Honor Graduates will receive additional accessories during the Convocation. These accessories should be worn Graduation night. No other decorations or flowers are allowed at the ceremony.

PLEASE NOTE THAT TEURLINGS CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL DOES NOT SPONSOR, NOR DOES IT ENDORSE ANY POST-GRADUATION PARTY OR GATHERINGS.

Graduates and their parents are reminded that Trinity Video Productions is producing a “Senior Highlight” video, which will include footage from graduation. If you have not already reserved your copy please contact Mr. David Mergeist of Trinity Video at 231-5432.

We hope that graduation can be a memorable event for everyone. Please direct any questions about graduation events to Mrs. Anna Proctor 235-5711, ext. 108.
